2. Mermerli Beach

Now it is time to tell you about Mermerli Beach. This is one of the most astounding sites that aren't very popular in Antalya.

This beach is among those which are near the Kaleiçi Harbor strip. It is a beautiful, calm environment that you can either be; by the waterside. Earlier women only used to visit there because that was the deepest area to be in the city, or the country, whoever you are. But Now, people of any form can go there to and feel the glory of the beach.

And in the summer you can also enjoy seats to sit comfortably on and sunbathe. The environment is quite natural without pollution and the water in the river is clean and clear and suitable for swimming. It's also possible to take beautiful photos of the beautiful scenery.

Mermerli Beach was included within the Blue Flag programme in its 2017 and had received the Blue Flag due to maintaining high standards of the quality of water and its environs.

Mermerli Beach can be suitable for those who need a quiet beach or those who came with their children and need a day for fun all together. I will say it again, it is an area that is picturesque and will not easy to forget.

3. Kleopatra Beach

The third one is Kleopatra Beach which is a 2 kilometers long beach in the Mediterranean coast city of Alanya near the resort town of Antalya in Turkey. It takes one of the most frequent-sought beaches near Antalya, in the town of Alanya.

Just like any other beach there is always a special and exciting story behind the name of the beach. Prehistoric history of Alanya is said to reveal that a Roman general called Anthony gifted the area to the famous Queen Cleopatra of Egypt as a token of affection. Cleopatra VII, the last Pharaoh of Ancient Egypt, frequently came to Alanya and use to bath in this beach. Thats why it is called Kleopatra Beach!

Currently, many individuals pay a visit to the Cleopatra Beach for purposively spending their time. It is also very spacious and ideal for all the people and it is a good area to go for sun bathing.
